

ASSOCIATIONS AND FOUNDATIONS

Tables for the associations and foundations are worked out on the basis of data collected by the National Statistical Institute through an annually conducted statistical survey. Object of the survey are the foundations, business organizations and organizations of employers, professional and art unions, associations of cooperative organizations, trade unions and syndicates and other non-profit institutions. Statistical forms are worked out in accordance with the Law for accountancy, national and international accounting standards.